ESA COSA VERDE DE AHÍ AFUERA
2nd of April, 2011 - 21th of May, 2011

TRAVESIA CUATRO presents "Esa cosa verde de ahí afuera (That green thing out there)" curated by Jose Castañal, in the circuit of "A 3 Bandas".

"Esa cosa verde de ahí afuera" reunites the artwork of the artists Carlos Irijalba (Spain), Mateo López (Colombia), Enrique Radigales (Spain) and Alejandro Vidal (Spain), whom are related with the topic of the exhibition, the Nature, which all of them abroads in the exhibited works. The Nature is used as an excuse to bond the works of this four artists, where each one of them provides a different point of view about the rareness of the ways we relate with Nature. The Nature as spectacle, the virtual natures, as a battle filed or the domestic natures. Four preceptions about that big mass that surrounds us and that, at the end, is our natural habitat, even if sometimes we seem to not recognize this.
